A home inventory can be invaluable when deciding how much insurance coverage fits your life situation, and makes sure you are adequately protected should you need to file a claim.
NOW THERE'S AN iPHONE APP FOR THAT!

1. Launch App

2. Get Started

3. Select a room

Add and delete rooms as needed.

4. Add an item

Take photos of your item, then add details such as room, category, date of purchase and price.

Type serial numbers or use the camera to scan bar codes.

If using a device without a camera, grab images from your photo library.

5. Create a .csv or iBook backup

Once your list is updated, tap the backup icon to attach your inventory as a spreadsheet (.csv) to an email.

Or, create an iBook (.pdf) file that can be synced to a computer with iTunes.

Homeowners and renters:
It pays to know your stuff

Whether it's gourmet cooking, designer handbags or high-end electronics, the investment Americans make in personal passions can have a profound impact on insurance needs.

But research suggests 48 percent of consumers do not have an inventory of their possessions. And if they did...
